

A woman with long dark hair, wearing a pink floral dress, is sitting on a wooden deck. She is holding an orange in her right hand. The deck is made of weathered wooden planks. There are several pieces of outdoor furniture: a large grey sofa with three cushions, a round grey table with a woven basket of fruit on it, and another round grey table with a yellow fruit on it. There are also some wicker baskets and a potted plant. The scene is lit with warm, golden light, suggesting late afternoon or early morning. The overall atmosphere is relaxed and sophisticated.

ABIE ABDILLAH ARCHITECT

Abie Abdillah is an emerging Asian design talent. Trained as industrial design student, from the college years, and strengthened from his experience as a junior designer, for a furniture manufacturer and design studio based in Jakarta.

Having a keen passion on working with local materials, such as rattan and teak wood, Abie has gained recognition of his works, thanks to numerous awards and publications, and has designed products for many important companies in Europe and Asia. He is now starting his own studio called "studiohiji", which is based in Tangerang, Jakarta.

The creation of Yoko Sofa Set started from a Designer Dispatch Service programme, initiated by the Ministry of Trade of the Republic of Indonesia and the Japan International Cooperation Agency. The project's aim was to increase the value of the local manufacture through design. By working with one of the most versatile manufacturers, he created the Yoko Sofa Set to expose the essence of the used materials: a combination of powder-coated aluminum steel with rattan or synthetic weaves.
