AQUALIA

The Aqualia and Sakari dinnerware collection has a simple and pure expression, combining a contemporary classic design with an interplay between function and aestheticism. Each piece is hand-made from extra fine-grained ceramic and thus no two pieces are completely alike, making every piece unique.

The dinnerware collection comes in two different colours, a turquoise called Aqualia and a deep rich black colour called Sakari and is glazed, which gives a deep shine to each piece. All tableware fulfills CE, are food safe and can go in the dishwasher.
