

FLEXFORM

FLEXFORM | MADE IN ITALY

around the world

Sentirsi
a casa,
sempre,
ovunque.

Feel at home anywhere and at any time.

Quella di Flexform è la storia di un'azienda di famiglia.

*Una storia tutta italiana che dal 1959 racconta di divani e poltrone, di chaiselongue e letti.
Che parla di grande comfort, di sobria eleganza, di eccellente fattura.*

È la storia di un prodotto fatto in Italia che viaggia per il mondo e si ferma nelle case di ogni angolo del pianeta portando con se un po' di quella bellezza italica misurata e rassicurante, fatta di proporzioni, stile, qualità.

*È soprattutto la storia di una promessa mantenuta.
Quella di regalare a chiunque scelga Flexform, una sensazione unica:
Home at last, sentirsi a casa. Finalmente.*

*La casa, il porto sicuro dove approdiamo alla fine delle nostre giornate.
La casa, il sogno di un'intera vita.*

*Che il viaggio abbia inizio.
Perché a farci sentire a casa, ovunque ci troviamo, ci pensa Flexform.*

The story of Flexform revolves around a family-run company.

*It is a quintessentially Italian story that has been giving an account of sofas, armchairs, chaises longues and beds since 1959.
It tells of great comfort, understated elegance and exceptional workmanship.*

It is the story of a product that is made in Italy and travels to homes all over the world, bringing with it the typically Italian low-key, reassuring beauty that is built on proportion, style and quality.

*Most importantly, it is the story of a promise fulfilled.
The promise is to give everyone who chooses Flexform a unique feeling: Home at last.*

*Home is the safe haven that welcomes us at the end of every day.
Home is the dream of a whole lifetime.*

*Let the journey starts.
Because no matter where we are,
Flexform will make us feel at home.*

Home at last.

Alex Bellini

*è un esploratore italiano nato ad Aprica, un piccolo paese tra le Alpi, nel 1978.
Le sue imprese in solitaria lo hanno reso noto come esploratore estremo, speaker motivazionale e mental coach, ma Alex è prima di tutto un viaggiatore.
Ha attraversato il Sahara, esplorato l'Alaska, navigato dal Mediterraneo all'Atlantico.
È partito dal Perù per arrivare in Australia, solcando l'Oceano Pacífico in kayak ed ha visitato gli Stati Uniti correndo da Los Angeles a New York in 70 giorni.
Per Alex, la sensazione Home at last è in tutto il mondo.*

*is an Italian explorer who was born in 1978
in Aprica, a little Alpine village.
Thanks to his solo feats, he has become a renowned extreme explorer, motivational speaker and mental coach, but first and foremost Alex is a traveller.
He has crossed the Sahara, explored Alaska and rowed across the Mediterranean and the Atlantic. He also rowed across the Pacific Ocean from Peru to Australia and he ran across the United States from Los Angeles to New York in 70 days.
Alex gets that Home at last feeling all over the world.*

Tutto comincia con un'immagine.
Si forma dal niente, alle volte da un rumore, altre da una paura. Forse è il silenzio ad accenderla, come una cassa di risonanza dei miei pensieri più inconsci.
O forse è, semplicemente, che ad un certo punto inizio a provare un'insostenibile nostalgia per quelle cose che solo a casa posso trovare.

Allora perché privarsene?

So di essere una persona particolare.
Vivo l'eterno conflitto di desiderare ciò che non posso avere. Quando sono a casa desidero la lontananza, il gelo, il silenzio, il buio; attenzione a non intenderlo come uno scappare, il mio è piuttosto un inseguire.
Quando invece sono lontano desidero sprofondare nel comfort di casa. Ecco, vorrei alle volte sentirmi più normale.
È una bella giostra la mia vita, attratto ora da un estremo ora dall'altro, ma questi due poli così lontani e così diversi sono necessari per mantenere tutto in un perfetto disequilibrio che di fatto è la vera molla per continuare a muoversi.
Andare, tornare, sognare, andare nuovamente...

Continuo ostinatamente a preferire il viaggio in solitaria. Forse sarà per sempre così. Ma tutte le volte che la vita mi regala la possibilità di trasformare un sogno in qualche cosa di concreto attraverso cui esplorare i confini, dentro e fuori di me, mi rendo conto che l'esperienza più bella è quando sono vicino alle persone che amo.
In quel momento il mio viaggio, qualunque esso sia, non è più un andare verso la mia destinazione, verso il coronamento di un sogno, verso qualcosa di ancora più lontano, ma diventa un lungo e lento ritornare.
Finalmente a casa.

Everything starts with an image.
It takes shape by itself, sometimes taking its cue from a sound and sometimes from a fear.
Perhaps it is silence that sets it in motion, like a resonance chamber for my most unconscious thoughts. Or perhaps I simply get to a point where I become unbearably nostalgic about the things that I can only find at home.

So why should I deprive myself of them?

I know that I am an unusual person.
There is a constant battle inside me because I always want what I cannot have. When I am at home, I want to be far away, in the cold, the silence and the dark; although it is important to note that rather than running away from something, I am chasing it. When I am far away, I long to indulge in home comforts. Sometimes I would like to feel more normal. My life swings to and fro, as I go from being attracted by one extreme to feeling the draw of the other.
However, these two distant, different ends of the spectrum are necessary in order to keep everything in the perfect imbalance that actually serves as the real driving force to keep me moving.
Leave, come back, dream, leave again...

I stubbornly continue to prefer to travel alone.
Perhaps I always will. But every time life presents me with the chance to make a dream come true and explore the boundaries both inside me and in the outside world, I come to appreciate that the most wonderful experiences are those that I enjoy alongside the people that I love. When that happens, no matter what sort of journey I am on, I find that I am no longer heading to a destination, the realization of a dream and something even further away, but slowly following the long path back, until I am home at last.

Questo viaggio attorno al mondo è stato documentato grazie alla collaborazione di architetti, interior designers e fotografi che hanno voluto fornirci le immagini delle tante case, hotel, ristoranti, barche, lounge illustrati in questo libro.

Flexform ringrazia i progettisti per la bellezza con cui hanno immaginato gli spazi.

Ringrazia i fotografi per lo sguardo attento che hanno posato sui luoghi.

E soprattutto ringrazia gli impiegati, gli artigiani, gli operai, i collaboratori che ogni giorno portano in azienda la loro passione e le loro competenze.

Senza di loro, questo libro non sarebbe stato possibile.

This journey around the world has been recorded thanks to the cooperation of architects, interior designers and photographers, who happily provided us with the pictures of the many homes, hotels, restaurants, boats and lounges included in this book.

Flexform would like to thank the designers for the attractive locations that they have created.

It would like to thank the photographers for their thoughtful perspectives on the settings.

And above all it would like to thank the office, craft and manual workers and all of the other members of the team who give the company all of their expertise and devotion every day.

This book would not have been possible without them.
